For the opening of the regular season, which will be on September 19, I engaged the Marianis, two Italian September 19. I bergaged the Marianis, two Italian dancers; the two Merkel sisters, hand balancers; Bianche Dellere, the Avolos, musicians, who have been here before; the five Sennetts, grotesque acrobats, and the Sisters Rappo, Russian ductities. The Allison troupe, a fine company of acrobats, eight in number, will come in December, and so will Mme. Marzella, who has a troupe of 165 trained birds. There are all kinds of birds among them, and they do wonderful things. Jane De Lorne, a fine singer, will also come in December. Then there are several important entertainers who will come over in February. Among them are the Montrose troupe of acrobats, as good as I ever saw. There are nine of them. Then there are Mile, Irms Lynnes, a French singer, somewhat in the style of Fougers, and the Hengley sisters. Americans, who have never appeared here. They have been for the last six months at the London Albambra. Henry French, a wonderful trick bidyclist, will also come in February, and so will Mme. Menly, a fine singer, whom I regard as one of my most important attractions for the season. I engaged forty or more attractions altogether; so, you see, these are far from being all.

Charles Judd, nine years old, son of Theodore F Judd, assistant secretary of the Railroad Branci of the Young Men's Christian Association, Forty-fifth-st. and Madison-ave., who lives with his family in White Plains, was drowned yesterday after noon while swimming in Croker's Pond, near that noon while swimming in Croker's Point, near that village. Judd, with a companion named Deane, went to the point to swim, taking with them a large dog belonging ho the Deane family. The dog entered the water with the boys, and Judd, in playing with it grasped its collar and allowed the dog to swim about with him. In doing this he was drawn into deep water, and realizing that he could not swim, the hoy became excited and released his hold on the dog's collar. He at once sank and was drowned.

ROUGH RIDERS ILL IN THE STREET. Private John Wassord, thirty years old, of Troop B of the Rough Riders, was found at Third-ave. and Thirty-fourth-st, yesterday afternoon sick with malaria. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital. John E. Campbell, thirty-four years old, and Richard 2. Campbell, thirty-four years old, and Richard Stanton, twenty-three years old, also of Troop B of the Rough Riders, were removed from the same point soon afterward to Bellevue. Campbell had stomach trouble and Stanton fever. The men came into Long Island City on trains from Montauk Point to see the parade and stayed at hotels near the ferry on this side of the river.

Jesse Burton Smith, eighteen years old, of the 2d United States Cavalry, walked into Bellevue vesterday suffering from stomach trouble, and William T. Krecklow, of Troop D. Sit United States Cavalry, walked into the hospital suffering from a facial abscess.

Sergeant Patrick Miller, twenty-five years old, of the Rough Riders, was taken ill with a fover last night at Broadway and Twenty-eighth-st., and was unable to proceed any further. A large and sympathetic crowd quickly gathered, and a police-man sent the sick man to the New-York Hospital. Sergeant Miller was in Cuba, and came from Mon-tauk yesterday. His home is in Pueblo, Col.

SHIPPING COAL TO BRITISH PORTS.

STATIONS ALL OVER THE WORLD TO BE SUI

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 29. There has been shipped from Norfolk, in British hottoms, seventien cargoes of Pocahortus steam coal, aggregating 79.123 tons. Those have gone to eleven different coaling stations belonging to England, and it has been believed that England was stocking such stations in event of possible war. To-day it leaked out that this view is undoubtedly correct, as the Pocahontas upon which to make the contest, the money question is still at the front, and upon this the lattle will probably fluully turn. We are quite willing that this shall be the issue. The silver issue is not nearly so strong in the West and Central West as it was at this period of the last compaign. On the other hand, the advocates of the gold standard are even stronger in their position, and better fortified than they were at this period of the campaign of 1806. Taken all in all, the Republicans have much the advantage of the Democrats upon the issues, and are in better condition to make the fight in 1808 than they were to make the fight in Coal Company is asserted by one of its employes to have practically admitted that an unlimited con-tract with the British Government for coaling her

New-Haven, Conn., Aug. 22.-John T. Lee, a thirteen-year-old son of James F. Lee, living at No. 29 John-st., committed suicide to-day by hanging. It is the youngest case of suicide ever recorded in this city, and was apparently the result of a childish freak. To-day, upon being punished for neglecting to do some chores, he went down ceilar and, adjusting a strap about his neck hanged him-self from a rafter. The lad could have easily touched the ground, but in order to strangle to death he bent his knees.

TWO SPANISH OFFICERS RETURN. Among the passengers who sailed on the North

German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II from Hoboken yesterday were two Spanish officers who were captured near Santiago at the battle of July 3, when the Spanish fleet under Admiral Cervera a, when the Spanish neet maner admit extending was destroyed. The officers are Dr. Antonio Jurardo, surgeon of the Vizcaya, and the Rev. José Riera Senac, chaplain of the Maria Teresa. Permission to return home was granted to Dr. Jurardo, as he has contracted quick consumption, caused by the water when he went overboard after the explosion on the Vizcaya.

Mr. Overstreet does not expect to see Utah, Colorado, Montana, idaho and Nevada, or any of them, break from their free-silver moorings this year, but he found North Dakota and Wyoming, as well as lowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Illinois in excellent condition politically for Republican success." Respecting his own State, Mr. Overstreet said.

The State of Indiana has never been in better condition for Republican victory than it is at this time. Our party there is harmonious and aggressive. It is absolutely free from factions, this being true in each Congress district, so that throughout the State locally we are as free from factions as it is possible for the party to be. Our State Convention, held August 3 and 4, was one of the most largely attended and enthuriastic in the history of the party. The large number of candidates indicated the hopeful feeling throughout the State, while the harmonious conclusion of the convention, being entirely free from bitter feeling, indicates the hope that the party has of success in the fail. I have no fear that we will not hold our own in the number of Congressmen from that State, and the present outlook is most favorable for us to elect a successor to Senator Turple."

Summing up the results of his personal observations, Mr. Overstreet said: "While I appreciate that if is too early to make any claims of results, yet, viewed from the present situation. I cannot help feeling that the West and Central West will make decided Republican gains in November.

"While there is a disposition on the part of the December's to Miscover some now tennes."
